Welcome to a landscape of tranquil forests, soaring mountain peaks and spectacular coastline that will soothe your mind and make your heart soar. In no time at all you can step from this natural playground into cosmopolitan cities, and charming towns and villages. Here you can meet and make friends with the welcoming locals, joining them in fantastic events, visiting unusual attractions or kick back to enjoy some sensationally good local food and drink. It’s time to find out what makes Perthshire, Dundee & Angus so very special.

Perthshire
This part of Scotland is known as ‘Big Tree Country’ for several very good (and very large) reasons. The Hermitage in Dunkeld is a peaceful, secluded wooded glen where you can admire some of Britain’s tallest trees, including a Douglas fir which stands at around 200ft. Come in autumn and you may also see salmon leaping up the crashing Black Linn Falls as they return home to spawn.

Nestled between two sprawling public parks, the elegant Georgian townhouses, cobbled streets and medieval spires, the city of Perth harks back to its long and prosperous past.

Blessed with a leafy riverside setting, Perth has the zip and bustle of a larger city but is small enough to explore easily on foot. You should stop for a bite to eat in one of the many cafes and tearooms; or spend an evening in one of the tremendous restaurants and bars.

Perth has a bustling arts and cultural scene, from the Edwardian Perth Theatre, and Horsecross Concert Hall to an array of art galleries, and independent craft shops.

The Solas Festival, based just outside Perth (and Dundee) at Errol Park, Errol, is Scotland’s mid-summer three-day festival to celebrate music and the arts.

Auchterarder is an interesting place, famed and nicknamed the ‘Lang Toon’ for its 1.5 mile long high street, which has a good selection of independent shops.

There’s no better way to get to know our hills and glens than on foot. Head to Blairgowrie and put your best foot forward on the Cateran Trail, which celebrates its 20th anniversary this year – a 64-mile circular waymarked walk through the unspoilt scenery of the Perthshire hills and the Angus Glens.

Aberfeldy has an enviable location on the banks of the River Tay. Enjoy dramatic north-westly views of the Grampian mountains.

Fancy a dram? Head to Scotland’s oldest distillery, Glenlivet just outside Crieff. The Library of Inverperfray, a short drive away, is the oldest public lending library in the country. You can also enjoy a short walk along the Heritage Trail to the nearby River Earn.

Explore the Victorian spa town of Pitlochry and the Pitlochry Dam Visitor Centre to learn about the history of hydro electricity.

Dundee
Dundee is buzzing with creative life, history and cool things to see and do. American Vogue has declared Dundee “one of Scotland’s most exciting places to be”, The Wall Street Journal pronounced it “Scotland’s coolest city”, and Lonely Planet has named it one of the top locations to visit in Europe. Step on board the legendary RSS Discovery which took Captain Scott and Ernest Shackleton to Antarctica. You simply have to visit the McManus, Dundee’s Art Gallery & Museum, and the stunning V&A Dundee, Scotland’s first design museum, which was named as one of Scotland’s premier visitor attractions for international travellers to visit in ‘The World’s Greatest Places 2019’ by American news magazine, TIME.

Treat yourself to a spot of retail therapy then dive into the city’s thriving nightlife at an array of lively bars, pubs and first-class restaurants.

Step back in time at the delightful old fishing village of Broughty Ferry. Stroll along its award-winning beach and see inside the 15th-century Broughty Castle.

Angus
What sort of childhood did the writer of Peter Pan have? You can see for yourself in Kirriemuir, where JM Barrie, author of the children’s classic, was born and spent his early childhood.

Head to the traditional market town of Forfar to taste one of the region’s delicious delicacies, the Forfar Bridie, a crispy meat pastry. Join in the 2020 celebrations in April of the 700th anniversary of Declaration of Arbroath. Stand at this very spot where The Declaration of Arbroath, one of the most important documents in Scottish history and recognised by UNESCO, was sealed at the magnificent red sandstone ruins of Arbroath Abbey.

Carnoustie is famed for its sublime championship golf course. Here you can also try the exhilarating sports of windsurfing, canoeing, sailing and yachting in the waters of the sweeping, shallow bay.

While away a pleasant day exploring the attractive town of Montrose and its wide, sandy beach. Play a round of golf on Montrose Golf Links, the fifth oldest course in the world.

Standing boldly in the town of Brechin you’ll find the beautiful Brechin Cathedral and its adjoining 11th-century round tower, which celebrates its 800th anniversary in 2020. It is one of only two such towers on the Scottish mainland.

Don’t miss...
Kirriemuir Camera Obscura, which gives you a fascinating glimpse into another era. From its hilltop setting you can enjoy striking views of the town and the surrounding countryside.

An award-winning Newton Farm stay and authentic farm tour with a farming family, unique alpaca experiences and walks at Inverarity, Forfar.

Highlights
• Watch a performance at the highly esteemed Dundee Rep Theatre, home to Scotland’s only full-time acting company, or catch an exhibition at Dundee Contemporary Arts.
• Follow the woodland walk from the centre of the charming Victorian spa town of Pitlochry to see the Black Spout, one of Perthshire’s most impressive waterfalls.
• Go wild in the University of Dundee’s Botanic Garden. There’s a splendid selection of exotic and native plants, trees and shrubs. The glasshouses will transport you thousands of miles into the middle of a rainforest and desert.
• Here’s an inside tip – just 25 miles north of Edinburgh is the little gem of Kinross. From this town you can follow the Loch Leven Heritage Trail around Scotland’s largest lowland loch. Keep your eyes peeled for wildlife and take the boat out to Lochieven Castle where Mary Queen of Scots was imprisoned in 1567.
Pull on your boots, grab your coat and throw yourself into the wonderful landscapes of Perthshire, Dundee & Angus. Here you can explore some of Scotland’s most stunning scenery, and experience a fantastic range of exciting outdoor activities against a backdrop of rolling hills, towering mountains and dreamy coastline.

The road links together Braemar, Ballater and Tomintoul with a range of changing landscapes inbetween. Perthshire Treks offer guided walking tours in Perthshire. Sneak out for an early morning visit to the banks of Loch Rannoch or Loch Tummel and you might be rewarded with a glimpse of the elusive pine marten. Welcome to squirrel-tropolis – Perthshire is home to some of the most populated areas of red squirrels in Britain. Walk through the most populated areas of red squirrels in Britain.

The Falls of Bruar, one of Perthshire’s best-loved beauty spots. Tour the circular walk round the Birks of Aberfeldy, a secluded wooded gorge on the outskirts of the town. The forest and its tumbling Falls of Moness inspired Robert Burns to pen his famous poem of the same name.

Follow the woodland trail through birchwoods to the summit of Vane Hill at Loch Leven National Nature Reserve. You’ll find this an ideal vantage point to observe the loch’s birdlife. Choose the path less travelled in the myriad woodland walks at Kinnoull Hill Woodland Park, a forested peak that overlooks Perth.

Enjoy a unique boat trip on Loch Tay at Kenmore with Loch Tay Safaris to explore the water, local wildlife and the abundance of nature around you.

A wildlife sanctuary in the city – in Camperdown Country Park in Dundee you can see over 50 native and exotic species including otters, red-bellied lemurs and European brown bears. Try sea kayaking by Broughty Ferry with Outdoor Explore and keep your eyes peeled for dolphin appearances.

Head to the Angus Glens for a great chance of spotting indigenous wildlife such as red deer, golden eagles, peregrine falcons, otters and many others. At Loch of Kinnordy RSPB Reserve, near Kirriemuir in spring you can see ospreys fishing in the loch as well as great spotted woodpeckers, and in autumn whooper swans. The Montrose Basin, an enclosed estuary of the River South Esk, is a major mustering point for huge numbers of wildfowl, waders and migrating geese each year. Take a winter evening stroll to witness the incredible sight of thousands of pink-footed geese descending upon this enclosed estuary. The Scottish Wildlife Centre at the Basin run regular wildlife events through the year from guided walks to children’s activities.

See the River South Esk smash itself into foam as it drops 60ft over the picturesque Bachnagairn Falls above Glen Clova. Experience some of Scotland’s most iconic wildlife and stories of the Angus Glens on a Secrets of the Glens adventure with Glenesk Wildlife Tours.

Wind your way along the tops of red sandstone cliffs on the Seaton Cliffs Nature Trail, a coastal walk from Arbroath to Auchmithie. Keep a look out for puffins, guillemots, peregrine falcons and other birds wheeling above the waves.
Lift your fingers from the brakes, kick hard on your pedal and launch yourself flying down the mountainside on your bike. Or pull on your wetsuit, wade into the water and let the waves do the hard work. Of course, you don’t have to chase a charge of adrenaline to enjoy yourself in the beautiful scenery of Perthshire, Dundee & Angus. You can still your mind as you walk amongst the giant trees and spectacular autumnal colours of Perthshire’s ‘Big Tree Country’. Or meander a morning away in some of the finest formal gardens in Europe. Welcome to a place of unparalleled natural beauty that offers an adventure playground for visitors of all ages to fall in love with.

On land, water and air
Hang on tight – the swift rapids of the Tay and Tummel rivers will have you bouncing happily around in your white-water raft. Or taste the unique thrills of canyoning as you leap from cliff ledges into cool pools and slide down natural flumes. You have to experience the unforgettable feeling of free-falling through the air on a bungee-jump at least once in your life, and it’s hard to imagine a more beautiful place to do it than in the dramatic Pass of Killiecrankie in Perthshire, where the River Garry flows below.

Dare to venture into the dramatic wilderness of Highland Perthshire in a Land Rover with Highland Safaris. Take in awe-inspiring scenery at nearly 3,000ft and keep your eyes open for glimpses of mountain hares, deer and the iconic red grouse. The kids will absolutely love panning for gold and the chance to feed mighty red deer.

Olympia in Dundee takes the idea of a swimming and leisure pool to a whole new level. Your family will love the thrill of shooting down the 3D holographic flumes and the cannonball with its 3.8m drop into the water. There’s also a 50m pool for those who want a relaxing swim. For some outdoor action head to City Quay and Foxlake Dundee’s Aqua Park for fun, wakeboarding, stand up paddleboarding and more. Take a fast rib trip on the River Tay from April to November to spot seals, dolphins, lighthouses and the iconic V&A Dundee from the water. Get to grips with windsurfing and canoeing on the placid waters of the North Reservoir or zoom along the zip wire at Monkie Country Park in Angus.

Great golf
Your golf swing may not be splendid, but Dunkeld and Birnam Golf Club certainly is – this picturesque course is set against splendid Perthshire scenery, with each hole presenting a unique challenge. Many holes overlook the serene Loch of the Lowes – watch out for ospreys!

Throughout Perthshire you’ll find outstanding value family golf tickets as well as free golf for under 18s, welcoming family-friendly courses.

You’ll need your biggest drives and most accurate iron shots on the prestigious Championship Course of Carnoustie Golf Links – even the pros get the odd 10 on their card here! You can also tee-off on the equally challenging Buddon Links and Burnside courses or try the Medal Course at Monifieth Golf Links which has been used as an Open Qualifying venue.

Glorious gardens
Follow in the footsteps of Scotland’s intrepid plant hunters at the Explorers Garden, Pitlochry. Learn about the perilous missions around the world that they braved to bring back the beautiful and exotic species that we now take for granted in our gardens. While away an hour or three on a gentle riverside stroll at Pitnies Garden near Forfar. Wander around the spacious lawns as you take in the scents and colours of roses, violas, delphiniums, dianthuses of hundreds of species of flowers in full bloom.

Explore Drummond Castle Gardens, near Crieff for impressive surroundings that have featured in the Outlander series.

Branklyn Garden in Perth is another place where you can view a fantastic array of plants from around the world including the Himalayan blue poppy, purple maple and the rare golden cedrus.

VISITSCOTLAND.COM
Are you ready to hear bloody tales of ambitious kings and queens, of perilous voyages to Antarctica, tragic Jacobite battles and what happened to the mysterious civilisation of the Picts? Then you’re going to love your stay in Perthshire, Dundee & Angus. We have enough ancient castles, fascinating museums, visitor centres and captivating storytellers to fire up even the most jaded imagination with tales of intrigue and adventure.

Perthshire

Pull up a comfy chair – you’ll need it after browsing more than 5,000 antique books at Innerpeffray Library, near Crieff, the oldest free public lending library in Scotland. Take a look at the oldest continuous borrowers’ register in Europe and learn about the lives and interests of the ordinary people who took books home, including shepherds, merchants and weavers.

Imagine the honeymoon night of Mary Queen of Scots and her second husband Lord Darnley inside Huntingtower Castle. On a less romantic occasion, her young son James VI was held captive in the same location by the 1st Earl of Gowrie as part of a political conspiracy known as the ‘Ruthven Raid’.

Scone Palace breathes history like nowhere else in Scotland. It is the family home of the Earls of Mansfield and the ancient crowning place of Scottish kings. See where the Stone of Scone, also known as the Stone of Destiny, once stood. It now resides in Edinburgh Castle. If you are a lover of fine things, Scone is a treasury of furniture and paintings, porcelain and other objet d’art. Surrounded by beautiful gardens and peaceful woodland, perfect for a gentle stroll or even a picnic – all under the watchful eye of the ever curious peacocks. There’s a great adventure playground for children, not to mention the unique ‘tartan’ maze of 2,000 beech trees.

Picture yourself as the owner of Blair Castle as you step through its grand interior. Dating back 740 years, each room has its own tale to tell, from the beautiful ballroom to the Derby Suite where Queen Victoria slept on her visit here in 1844. On the shores of Loch Tay you can visit the Scottish Crannog Centre and step inside an authentically recreated Iron Age dwelling and learn how the area’s inhabitants survived 2,500 years ago. You can even try your hand at making fire with the same tools that early crannog-dwellers would have used.

Don’t miss out on visiting Perth Theatre, one of Scotland’s oldest theatres to catch one of their latest performances.

Dundee

Why were trains, trams and ships so vital to Tayside? Find out at the fascinating Dundee Museum of Transport – and get an eyeful of some cool cars and fun miniature trains at the same time!

Step aboard the RRS Discovery, the ship that was built in Dundee and designed for adventure that took Scott and Shackleton on an epic expedition to Antarctica. Learn more of these heroes of the ice and their crew at Discovery Point Visitor Centre.

Don’t miss out on a visit to The McManus Art Gallery & Museum where you can journey through the past 400 million years and discover the history of Dundee.

At Verdant Works let the rattle and roar of the original restored machinery transport you back over 100 years to an era when jute was king.

Step back in time as you uncover the Dundee Women’s Tract which celebrates some of the amazing women whose lives touched the city.

Angus

Enjoy a moment’s peace amid the ruins of Restenneth Priory near Forfar. It was founded in 1153 as an Augustinian priory by King David I, and it’s here that Robert the Bruce chose to bury his son, Prince John, who died in infancy.

It’s easy to imagine the refined elegance of late medieval aristocratic life in Scotland as you walk round the enchanting red sandstone ruins of Edzell Castle near Brechin and admire the Renaissance walled garden.

GAME OF THRONES was played out for real within the red sandstone walls of Arbroath Abbey. The Abbey is famous in history for its association with the sealing of the Declaration of Arbroath. Learn more in the informative visitor centre.

DON’T MISS...

- The Fortingall Yew tree, reputedly the oldest living thing in Europe at around 3,000 years old. Steeped in folklore, it is said that Pontius Pilate was born beneath it.
- The world’s oldest surviving sea-washed lighthouse – the Bell Rock Lighthouse. Learn about its history at Arbroath Signal Tower Museum.
- The spooky tales and an underground vault tour with DD Tours, exploring Dundee’s history, crime, and supernatural tales.

HIGHLIGHTS

- You can almost hear the workers feet on the floorboards and feel the thrum of the mighty machinery at Stanley Mills, near Perth. This unique complex of water-powered cotton mills is one of Scotland’s best preserved relics of the 18th-century industrial revolution.
- Are you ready for battle? Then step aboard the oldest British-built warship still afloat today – HM Frigate Unicorn, which is berthed at Dundee’s waterfront. First launched in 1824, visit the lower deck where over 300 of the ship’s ‘company’ or crew slept and see the massive cannons on the gun deck.
- Turreted Balhousie Castle makes a suitably superior home for the Black Watch Museum. Walk inside its noble walls for a fascinating insight into the 300-year history of one of the world’s oldest and most elite military regiments.
- Not everyone grows up in their very own fairy-tale castle – but then the late Queen Mother was a very remarkable woman. Romantic Glamis Castle was her childhood home and one of the settings that inspired Shakespeare’s tragedy Macbeth. Take a tour of its magnificent interior before exploring its grounds and gardens.
Start your day with a bite in a quirky tearoom before browsing fashionable boutiques, admiring stunning architecture and lazing the afternoon away in a peaceful riverside park. Scotland's coasts and waters have shaped our history, from fishing and textiles to whisky and wave power, they have influenced our culture, our stories and our way of life, from the rainwater which makes local whisky to the abundance of wildlife around the coast and rivers.

And this influence is very much seen today across Perthshire, Angus and Dundee, all intrinsically linked by Scotland’s longest river – The Tay. Not least with a tale of two vibrant cities, both with enviable locations along the banks of the River Tay. The iconic design of the V&A Dundee. Scotland's first design museum, has been constructed to merge effortlessly into the Tay and reconnects the city to its historic River Tay waterfront. While the ‘Fair City’ of Perth is beautifully situated on the banks of the River Tay. The area's landscape and coastline are not only a place to drink in with the eyes. The rich soil bears luscious fruits, tender lamb and beef, sensational seafood and artisan produce. While, with its crystal-clear water sources there is no surprise to find an array of wonderful whisky, gin and vodka distilleries to visit. In Angus, savour the colourful Arbroath harbour. The town’s most famous product is the Arbroath Smokie, which was first created in the village of Auchmithie. It is line-caught haddock, smoke-cured over smouldering oak chips, and still made in a number of family-run smokehouses tucked in around the harbour. Take a boat trip out to the magnificent Bell Rock Lighthouse or hear about its story at the Signal Tower Museum and how the coastal town’s connection with the sea has influenced Arbroath’s social, industrial and ecclesiastical history. Using multi-media displays and historic objects, the museum tells the story of Arbroath’s fishing and maritime industries. Entrance is free.

If you are brave enough try a Highland Fling Bungee Jump over the River Garry at Killiecrankie. Combine city and water fun with a day out at Foxlake Adventure Park in City Quay, Dundee. Take your pick from wakeboarding to paddle boarding. Ship Ahoy! While in Dundee you can also climb aboard a Pirate Boats Trip along the Tay to spot wildlife and the city, including the Tay Bridges, from a new perspective.
Perthshire
Perth Riverside Light Nights transform the lovely Norie-Miller riverside walk into a magical wonderland with illuminations and fantastic themed nights, including celebrations of Chinese New Year and Valentine’s Day. May marks one of the highlights in Scotland’s cultural calendar – the Perth Festival of the Arts. All the arts in one amazing festival. In summer don’t miss the Southern Fried Festival, which celebrates American Roots music featuring a line-up from home and abroad. You can also make a splash at the Your Tay, Your Adventure Festival which celebrates the River Tay with tours, talks and lots of activities on the water. The final festival event is the iconic SCA Tay Descent - a mass paddlesport event on the river, which is an awesome experience for participants and spectators alike. Put your wellies on for the very best in traditional country sports at the Scottish Game Fair. Held every July against the unique backdrop of Scone Palace, the family-friendly entertainment includes falconry displays and terrier racing.

See the best riders saddle up to compete in the stunning setting of Blair Castle at the International Horse Trials in August. The much-loved Bruadar Country Fair runs alongside. In October soak up the spectacular autumnal scenery of Perthshire during the Crieff and Strathearn Drovers Tryst Walking Festival which offers a week-long programme of guided walks led by experienced volunteers.

Dundee & Angus
Get ready to rock in Angus in May. Don’t miss Bonfest in Kirriemuir for the ultimate rock music festival celebrating the international sensation, Bon Scott. Escape to the country and experience the Angus hills in all their glory in June at the Angus Glens Walking Festival. Roam for four fabulous days through this beautiful part of the world on walks of all levels led by experienced guides. Love cars? Then in July you must visit the Glamis Scottish Transport Extravaganza, held annually, in the grounds of Glamis Castle. Music fans will be in their element when Dundee’s Camperdown Park hosts Radio 1’s Big Weekend on 22-24 May. In May 2020 don’t miss Dundee’s Month of Design programme which is packed full of design related activity. And don’t miss Dundee’s Summer Streets Festival in July. Treat yourself to three full days of delicious food, stunning horticulture and live entertainment at the Dundee Flower and Food Festival in September. Head to Camperdown Park for appearances by celebrity chefs, samplings and stalls laden with local produce. Unleash your inner Einstein at the Dundee Science Festival. You’ll be inspired by family-friendly activities, talks, exhibitions and shows that celebrate the city’s unique scientific heritage.

WHAT’S ON
Pack your party shoes – it’s all happening here in Perthshire, Dundee & Angus. Whatever time of year you visit you can enjoy a wonderful array of events and festivals. From outdoor festivals that showcase the region’s beautiful landscape to celebrations of culture and haute cuisine, you’ll find plenty of unforgettable ways to share our passion for the finer things in life.
Getting around Perthshire, Dundee & Angus should be an enjoyable part of your visit in itself. Excellent transport links can whisk you through our countryside and into the heart of our cities.

By road

Use the park & ride services in Perth and Scone for a carefree day out. Dundee has several long and short stay car park.

You can hire a car from Turner Hire Drive www.turner-hiredrive.co.uk, Arnold Clark www.arnoldclark.com and Enterprise Rent-A-Car www.enterprise.co.uk have branches in Perth and Dundee.

Cyclists can enjoy the freedom of National Cycle Routes 1 and 7 and there are plenty of quiet country roads and dedicated cycle paths that make travelling by bike easy. You can also hire a traditional or e-bike at Dundee’s City Quay and explore the city and rural routes beyond!

National Tourist Routes

The Angus Coastal Route begins in Dundee and takes you northwards towards Aberdeen along some of the most stunning coastal scenery in Scotland. Take the time to visit the picturesque seaside towns, sandy beaches, nature reserves and championship golf courses located along the way.

The Deeside Tourist Route runs for 107 glorious miles between the cities of Perth and Aberdeen. Drive through the gentle, rolling landscape in and around Blairgowrie, continuing along the A93 as it climbs 2,182ft into East Perthshire before arriving at Glenshee.

For a scenic alternative to the main A9 route, turn off onto the 45-mile long Perthshire Tourist Route just north of Dunblane. You’ll drive through rolling, fertile farmland and the dramatic landscape of the Sma’ Glen before ending in Ballinluig near Pitlochry.

By bus

The main bus stations in Dundee and Perth city centres connect you with many other major cities and act as hubs for bus routes into Perthshire and Angus towns and villages. There is also a direct X90 bus service, which runs every 90 minutes, from Dundee city centre to Edinburgh Airport.

You can get information on all the local bus services at Dundee Bus Station on the Seagate and Perth Bus Station on Leonard Street.

By rail

The scenic Highland Line threads its way through the mountain passes between Pitlochry and Blair Atholl, while the West Highland Line takes you to Rannoch Moor, one of the most remote places in Britain.

Dundee and Perth have large railway stations, with smaller stations in many of the Perthshire and Angus towns.

The scenic East Coast main line runs from Dundee through Angus and the coastal towns of Arbroath, Carnoustie and Montrose. While Perth is just a short connecting onward journey from Dundee.

Dundee Airport is just a five minute taxi drive away from the railway station or pleasant walk.

Welcome to HMS Unicorn.
The Most Original Old Ship in the World.

At almost 200 years old, HMS Unicorn is one of the world’s most remarkable historic ships and the last surviving wooden warship left in Scotland.

Built for the Royal Navy and launched in 1824, HMS Unicorn is now preserved as a historic ship and visitor attraction in Dundee.

As one of the world’s oldest ships and with four atmospheric decks to explore, HMS Unicorn is great fun for all the family and suitable for all ages.

So come aboard and step back in time to learn about life at sea, the history of the Navy in Dundee and warships in ‘the Golden Age of Sail’.

WE ARE OPEN ALL YEAR ROUND.

SUMMER HOURS (April – October)
open 7 days a week
10am – 5pm

WINTER HOURS (November – March)
open 6 days a week
10am – 4pm
